Dear Parents and Carers,

Prime Minister's Announcement

I'm sure you will have seen last night's announcement from Boris Johnson about schools reopening for children in Year 6 after half term. The school had not received any information regarding this prior to Mr Johnson's statement.

The Prime Minister did make it clear that reopening schools on June 1st is not yet confirmed and will depend on what happens with infection rates and other data over the next few weeks. We don't know when this will be confirmed. It is not clear how such a reopening could practically and safely happen, and we have no details of government expectations.

At the moment we are waiting for more information from the government and guidance from the local authority and unions. We will be in contact with you when we have something more definite to say. In the meantime, the current arrangements for schools will continue. The school is currently only open for critical worker children and vulnerable children, if at all possible, children should remain at home. This guidance has not changed.

Stay safe and we hope to provide you with more clarity soon. Thank you for your continued support.
